announce:

"The Ramallah Pitching Commission for documentary Projects 2012, RamallahDoc"

Training and Educational Direction: Pen Media (Palestine) and Story Doc (Athens)

The pitching session is an opportunity for documentary filmmakers to present and defend their documentary film project, directly in front of a forum of 10-15 commissioning editors representing the most important international TVs, and an international group of documentary producers.

The fourth edition will take place the beginning of June, 2012 in Ramallah, and will be preceded by workshops aiming to prepare the projects and the filmmakers to the pitching session.

The files should contain (in English only):

- Project title
- Director and Producer's names and contacts.
- Production body (company, organization etc.) and contacts.
- Synopsis (10 lines)
- Treatment (10 Lines)
- Director statement (10 lines)
- Producer statement (10 lines)

- Estimate budget
- Director's cv and filmography
- Producer's cv and filmography

(In case some of the requirements are not available immediately, they may be completed with the help of the selection committee)
